Trees of Wilson
Wilson County's Heritage

The Newsletter of the
Wilson County Genealogical Society

The Board of Directions of WCGS authorized publication of the annual volumesof Trees in November 2000. We are pleased to bring you these volumes which bring together for the first time all issues in a given year, or range of years in the case of 1992-93.

Please note that an index for the previous year has been included in most years as part of the March issue. For that reason, you will find a gap in the pages for your March issue. Nothing is missing. The index has simply been moved to the annual volume for the corresonding year. You will find the same situation for the annual membership / surname list. We have not included these lists for any volumes; however, you may note the missing page numbers from a spring issues of some years, usually the April issue.

As noted in the paragraph above, each annual volume includes an index for that year, bound at the back of the volume.

Membership in the Wilson County Genealogical Society is open to anyone interested in the heritage of Wilson County families. Membership information may be obtain from WCGS at P.O. Box 802, Wilson NC 27894-0802. The present internet address is http://www.wcgs.org. The email address is ancestor@wcgs.org.

The Society meets monthly on the 4th Tuesday, January through May, and September through November. Meetings are usually held in the meeting room at the Wilson County Public Library on Nash Street in Wilson. There is a social meeting in June of each year at a location announced prior to that meeting.

Members of the Society are invited to submit articles and items of interest for publication in Trees of Wilson. Acceptance of these items is subject to approval of the editors and is based on suitability and potential interest.

Married

At the residence of the bride's father, on Wednesday last, Miss Minnie Moore and Mr. Henry Proctor, Rev. J. F. Farmer officiating. After the ceremony a bountiful feast was spread, of which the guests partook freely.

In the city of Raleigh, on the night of the 25th of Decemmber, Christmas night, Mr. Chas. C. Gardner, of Stantonsburg was happily united in holy wedlock to Miss Mattie, the charming and popular daughter of Mr. E. R. Ellis, the efficient chief mailing clerk in the U. S. Post office, at Raleigh.

The ceremony was beautifully and solemnly performed by the Rev. D. H. Tuttle, pastor of the Central M. E. Church. The bride is widely and well known throughout the State, and has many friends who join us in wishing the happy couple much joy in their new life, and may there never be one cloud of sorrow to darken their pathway, but may their future be bright with always a ray of peacefulness shining around them. The bride was the recipient of many handsome presents from her friends. The 11 o'clock train, via the R. & D. railroad carried them away to their home.

Don't fail to be on hand./ Mr. T. W. Braswell has been appointed agent for the Genuine Singer Sewing Machine at Elm City, and territory east of Wilson. Tom knows how to handle a machine and no doubt will make a first class agent./ Old Captain Killett was limping around during the first day of the week. He heard that Judge Garnett was coming down to talk about the war and--presto, that old wound of his began to make itself felt at once. He will be on hand too, Friday night./ I am with Wallace Batchelor at his famous saloon, my old stand on Tarboro St. where I would gladly have my old customers and friends call. We have a nice line of pure mellow whiskeys, wines and gins, and a nice line of cigars &c, also a nice restaurant where you can get nice oysters or anything the market affords. Come round to see us. Respectfully, Jordan Batts./ Quite a number of strangers are to be seen upon our streets now at midday. Since the passenger depot was moved to Nash St. persons passing through are attracted by our pretty trees and when they have the time a good many stroll up town to see what kind of a place Wilson really is./ This is an opportunity for us to advertise our little town. Make it as attractive as possible to the passers by./ Our friend of the Newbern Courier jumps upon us for our remarks in last week's issue, about two of our printers going to Newbern to live. He says, in as much as he is holding five aces, that he is doing more than booming the good old town. Well, we started into the matter, proposing to "tote" fairly with any objectors to our remarks: but when our contemporary proposes to play with two packs to our one, we must rise to remark that we are out of the race. We also advise him not to put too much faith in Schafer, as a young man of Newbern. Mr. Henry N. Ives, now just appearing on the horizon may make it quite fishy for him.

QUERY: I am currently struggling to separate the lineages of two Wilson County Martin Thorns. Apparently one was born 1780 and died before 1860 in Oldfield Dist. The other was born 1784 and lived until 1875 in the Gardner Dist. One Martin was the orphaned son of Nicholas and Rachel (Brown) Thorn. One Martin was grandson of Martin Thorn Sr. which may not exclude the first. I can't get a connection with their ancestors who came to Edgecombe County in the 1700s. NAMING CUSTOMS

The custom of naming children in families in colonial times was as follows:

The first son was named after the husband's father.
The second son was named after the mother's father.
The third son was named after the father.
The fourth son was named after the father's brother.
The first daughter was named after the mother's mother.
The second daughter was named after the father's mother.
The third daughter was named after the mother.
The fourth daughter was named after the mother's eldest sister.

This information is sometimes a helpful clue to genealogists.

BATTLE NAMES

During the Civil War, the Federal Army (North) named battles after water in the area --bays, creeks, lakes, etc. The Confederate Army (South) named them after land, pointing out the difference between the urban north and rural south. For example, Shiloh Meeting House and Pittsburg Landing were the same battle. Likewise, Sharpsburg (a town) and Antietam (a creek), or Manassas (a town) and Bull Run (a creek) refer to the same battle.

[1]PRESERVING DAMAGED FAMILY TREASURES

National Archives experts in restoring and preserving historical documents offer some tips for salvaging flood-damaged family papers, books and photographs.

Remove mold first:

1. Remove items from hot, humid, stagnant air and darkness if you can.
2. Dry items immediately or freeze. Never freeze old photos or negatives. Unfortunately, they are too fragile.
3. Brush away dry and powdery mold outdoors.
4. Don't try to remove fuzzy or slimy mold. If mold remains after freezing it can be exposed to one to two hours of sunlight to dry it out or set it.

Clean materials carefully:

1. Handle soggy paper gently.
2. Remove caked-on mud and dirt from wet items by gently dipping the papers in a bath of clear water. Wear rubber gloves to avoid contamination to yourself and damage to paper.
3. Don't wash images that are blurred, feathered or faded from flood damage--they may fade totally.

Air-dry your items:

1. Use fans to circulate air around, but not directly at, documents.
2. Spread loose materials in single layers. Use waxed paper between every page of bound glossy materials.
3. For a book, place regular paper inside the covers and then intermittently throughout the book. Open books and stand them on edge. Replace the inserted paper as it becomes soaked and invert the book.
4. Air-dry most photos, negatives, and slides face up, placing blotting material beneath photographs. Avoid touching the surfaces. Photos that are stuck together may separate after soaking them in cold water.
5. Remove framed items, backing first, from frames. If the items are not stuck to glass, air-dry them. If the materials are stuck, dry them intact with the glass side down.

Call the American Institute for Conservation at 202-452-9545 for advice for a list of conservators who can help.

On the 13th of March, at his home near town, Mr. Leon Smith, son of Mr. Norris Smith. The deceased was about twenty years of age.

MARRIED.

On March 7th, at 3 p.m. a respectable assemblage of relatives and friends met at the residence of Mr. A. T. Ward, the bride's father, to witness the marriage of his daughter, Miss Polly, to Mr. W. T. Sullivan, both of this county. The solemn and impressive ceremony, that made them one, was performed by Rev. Frank Farmer. Miss Polly is a very industrious and charming young lady, and is worthy of the position assigned her. We congratulate you, Mr. Sullivan, in your noble conquest, and may your happiness just begun grow brighter as the years grow old.

I leave to Amos Boyt, Micajah Boyt, and Dempsy Boyt the debt John McKinne owes me. I appoint William Thompson and Stephen Boyt my executors.
Which said will your Orators charge was signed by the mark of the said James Jones, then "James (X) Jones" and acknowledged to be his last will in the presence of John C. Pender and Hamilton Howell, who in his presence and in presence of each other signed their names as Witnesses thereto.

And your Orators further shew unto your Honor that the said James Jones left a widow Molly Jones who resides in Wayne County, and one brother, Arthur Jones, and one sister Betsey Garner the wife of Willis Garner, all of whom reside in Wayne County. To which said living brother and sister, and to the said descendants of the deceased brothers and sisters of the said James Jones, (subject to the dower of his widow) would have descended as his heirs at law all the real estate of the said James Jones, and among the said widow & brother & sister and children of deceased brothers & sisters, as next of kin, would have been distributed all the personal estate of said deceased had the said deceased died without will or testament.

Your Orators Eliza & Elizabeth Toler, and Durham Jones an the children of America Toler mentioned in the said will.

Moses Boyt survived the said James Jones, and has since died, leaving your Orators Elisha Boyt, Louisa Boyt, Ollen Boyt, Alice Boyt & John Ashley Boyt his children and heirs at law---

Your Orators further shew unto your Honor that they are in danger of losing the benifit of the devises and bequests to them, by reason that the said will has been lost or destroyed before being proved. And that the persons, herein named as heirs at law and next of kin of the deceased James Jones claim to take by descent and by distribution the real and personal estate of the deceased as though he had died intestate. And your Orators are unable either to prove the due execution of said will, to make out a copy of its contents, or to establish its loss, without the aid of a discovery from the said heirs at law and next of kin, and are without the means of any

JAMES LAWRENCE VS. FRANKLIN G. PITT
SUPREME COURT CASE

Where, by the death of her grand-father, (the person last seized) a child is entitled to a reversion in land, expectant on the termination of a life estate, and such child dies before the expiration of the life estate: Held, that the inheritance does not vest for life in the parent of the deceased child, under the 6th Canon of Descents, on the expiration of the life estate. The person entitled to take must make himself heir to the person last seized.

This was an action of Ejectment, tried before his Honor Judge Caldwell, at the Spring Term 1854, of Edgecombe Superior Court..

The plaintiff claimed the right to enter upon an undivided fifth part of the tract of land set forth in the declaration, and the following facts are submitted as a case agreed:

"Noah Little died intestate, in the year 1824, seized of a tract of land, leaving Mary E. Little his widow, and the following children, who were his only heirs at law, to wit: Joseph J. Little, Cullen Little, Wm. G. Little, Elisha Little, Patsy Howard and Amariah Little. At the November Term, 1824, of Edgecombe County Court, the widow, Mary E. Little, filed her petition for dower, in the said land, which was assigned, and she took possession thereof, and continued in possession until her death in 1852. At August Term, 1826, of said court, a petition for partition of the land was filed by the heirs, and under it a partition was had, and the share assigned to Amariah Little was covered by the dower of the widow and is the tract of land described in the declaration. Amariah Little died in 1842, intestate, and without issue. Patsey Howard died intestate, before 1842, leaving a child her only heir, by the name of Martha, who intermarried with the lessor of the plaintiff. Martha, the wife of the lessor, died in 1844, leaving a child (Joseph) her only heir---the issue of the marriage between her and the lessor of the plaintiff. Joseph, the child, died intestate and without issue in 1850. The defendant was in adverse possession, at the time of the demise, in the declaration.

If the Court should be of opinion that the plaintiff is entitled to recover, judgment is to be entered in his favor for six-pence and costs, with an order to issue a writ of possession. If the Court should be of opinion that the plaintiff is not entitled to recover, judgment of non-suit is to be entered."

His Honor being of opinion with the plaintiff, gave judgment accordingly, from which the defendant appealed.

*Simon Brewer

Civil War: Simon Brewer, Private. Resided in Wayne County, NC, where he enlisted on July 28, 1864 for the War. Captured near Petersburg, Virginia, March 25, 1865 and confined at Point Lookout, Maryland, until released on June 23, 1865 after taking the Oath of Allegiance.

Simon Brewer was approximately 17 years old when he served in the War Between the States. He, like many thousands of Confederates released, probably walked home to North Carolina after his release.

The last days of the War were hard on all soldiers involved. When Simon Brewer arrived at his home in North Carolina, he was a rag tag, dirty soldier that his family could not recognize. His face was dirty, his clothes were dirty, and he was wearing the same clothes he left home in. He was not physically harmed but his family could not tell by looking that it was their son, Simon.

He had to take a bath in the yard and wash his face so that they could see that it was Simon Brewer before he was allowed to go into the house.

WILSON METHODIST CHURCH

On February 16, 1888, Charles A. Young of Wilson deeded to James E. Rountree, A. J. Simms, W. J. Gay, S. P. Clark, and Jonas W. Crowell, "Trustees of the Methodist Church South of said Town, County, and State," for $2,500.00 a quarter-acre (bought from William Murray) beginning on Greene Street at Annie Wainwright's corner, with her line to W. D. Hackney, with his line to R. T. Stevens (formerly the residence of William Murray), with him to Greene Street and then to the beginning, "In trust that said premises shall be held kept maintained and disposed of as a place of residence for the use and occupancy of preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, who may from time to time be appointed in said place subject to the usage and Discipline of said Church as from time to time authorized and declared by the general Conference of said Church and by the Annual Conference within whose bounds the said premises are situated". WILSON IN 1875

After a lengthy discussion of the latest activities in the Wilson County Court, The Tarboro Southerner of November 12, 1875, continued: "The town has perhaps grown more rapidly than any in the State. It is ornamented with many handsome private residences; boasts a three-story brick hotel, recently erected by B. F. Briggs, Esq. well-kept by Mrs. Blount, and as well patronized by the traveling public.

"Though scarce a quarter Century since in swaddling clothes, it mow claims 2500 population, a bank and five churches, and one of the most prominent schools in the State. Many wealthy, intelligent and liberal citizens control the business, and in miniature and magnitude the Wilson ladies are the peers of any."

TO PRESERVE NEWSPAPER CLIPPINGS - Experts at the National Archives suggest the following procedure for preserving old newspaper clippings. "Mix 2 teaspoons of magnesium carbonate and a quart of club soda in a shallow plastic dish. Place newspaper clippings between two pieces of screen or Pellon fabric sold at fabric stores and soak for 30 minutes. Mop up excess water with blotting paper and allow to dry overnight on more blotting paper. Store the clippings in a well sealed plastic bag. They should keep forever.

There are differing opinions on plastic bags. Mylar plastic is used in archival quality plastic and it has been said that the grocery store variety, Glad plastic bags, are made of mylar plastic and may be used for storing pictures, etc. Others have said that they are not safe for long periods of time. It may be that they would be a safe alternative to use for short periods of time until the more expensive type could be purchased since Glad plastic bags are found in practically every foodmarket.

IRELAND WILLS - All the Prerogative Wills of Ireland were destroyed in a fire in the Dublin Courthouse in 1922. Before that time, Sir William Bethan had made abstracts of genealogical data found in wills dating from 1536 to 1800. In 1897, Sir Arthur Vicars prepared an index to Bethan's abstracts, little guessing that 25 years later the original wills would all be destroyed and that his index would be the only printed guide to the wills and the only means of access to the abstracts left behind by Sir William Bethan. This index contains 40,000 entries arranged alphabetically by residence and the year in which the estate was probated. Considering the loss of the original wills, this must be accounted one of the most useful books in all Irish genealogical research.
Pinion Whispers, Southeastern Colorado, Vol. XII, No. 1-2

EAST TENNESSEE - Research on the early families of East Tennessee is difficult, not only because many of the old records have been destroyed, but because both Virginia and North Carolina had jurisdiction over the area at one time. The North Carolina state line was extended in 1779, thus ending Virginia's jurisdiction over the territory now in Sullivan and Hawkins counties, Tennessee. All of Tennessee was a part of North Carolina until 1790 at which time Tennessee became part of the Territory of the United States South of the Ohio River. Tennessee became a state in 1796. Thousands of North Carolinians poured into Tennessee in the 1770s, 1780s, and 1790s. MANY PERSONS BORN IN TENNESSEE PRIOR TO 1800 WERE APT TO CLAIM THAT THEY HAD BEEN BORN IN NORTH CAROLINA RATHER THAN IN TENNESSEE.

RELIGIOUS AND MORAL REFORM SOCIETIES

A memorial to the Legislature To The Honorable, The Legislature of N. Carolina

The undersigned, memorialists citizens of the County of Johnston Respectfully recommend to your Honorable body, the propriety of refusing for the future, Charters of Incorporation to any religious or moral reform socities whatever. To do so, in their humble opinion, is to violate the Constitution of our State, and to encourage the encroachment of ecclesiastical despotism. The attention of your body is especially called to the order of the Sons of Temperance, in our State, who are desirous of law power to carry out their designs and who will likely importune your body for acts of favorite legislation. Your memorialists deprevate any such legislation, as being dangerous to human liberty. Believing the money loaned by the State to the Wake Forest College to have been improperly disposed of, and by reason of which loan, sectarian pride and prejudice have been fostered; the undersigned Suggests the propriety of withdrawing the arm of the government from this sectarian Institution, by collecting from it, if possible the amount loaned. If religious Societies, Schools or Colleges, cannot stand upon their own merits and sustain themselves without the legislation or money of human governments they should not stand at all, and the sooner they fall the better.

Your memorialists will ever pray &c

SLAVES WHO BOUGHT THEIR FREEDOM

To the Honorable the General Assembly of North Carolina:

The undersigned citizens of the County of Wayne in the State of North Carolina, respectfully represent to your honorable body, that two aged persons of Color in this County, called Sam and Sookey, his wife, most humbly and respectfully desire the Legislation to emancipate them, to enable them to lawfully dispose of their honest earnings.

They have, by their labor and industry, paid full prices for their freedom, and by an honest, humble, sober, peaceable, inoffensive and correct deportment through a long life, gained the respect and confidence of those among whom they have lived, and among whom they hope to die. They are now far advanced in life, Sam being above seventy years old, and Sookey about sixty-eight. They are too old to attempt to emigrate to a free country, and they desire to spend the short remnant of their days in the County of their nativity, the home of their affections and the land of their birth.

Our annual meeting will be held at 7 PM Tuesday, May 24, in the Wilson County Public Library meeting room. Officers and committee chairpersons will give their annual reports, officers will be elected, and time will be spent proofreading cemetery information for Volume III to be published late this year. Our June social meeting will be discussed: time, place, and other details. (Regular meetings at the library will resume in September.)

Many of you, especially those who live a distance from Wilson County, have told us how much you appreciate the newsletters. In order to continue to have good material to publish, we need contributions from members. Even if you live out-of-state, send in anything you think might be good to include in our newsletter. And thanks to those of you who have been faithful in submitting articles! Sharing increases the chances of discovery for other researchers and for networking.

Two Runaways

Two runaways gave a little excitement on last Saturday. Mrs. W. B. Young left her horse and buggy standing in front of Young Bros'. store. Presently the horse took fright and ran down the alley breaking the buggy to pieces quite badly. That evening Mr. Robt. Boykin was driving Mr. Frank Lane's horse to a sulky when the animal became unmanageable and ran down Goldsboro street, breaking the sulky and throwing Mr. Boykin out. We are glad to state, however, that no one was hurt. The only damage lies in the injury to the vehicles and to the disposition of the horses.

Kenly Notes

There was a wreck of one of the through freights last Friday morning, just above Kirby's Crossing. There was not much damage, but the road was impassable for trains till about 2 o'clock p.m. The trains just piled up at Kenly. There were four here when the track was cleared. Our efficient agent, Mr. Alford, took train orders that day till his eyes looked like a marsh rabbit's.

An Alligator Caught

On last Saturday a young alligator, about three feet long, was brought to town and exhibited on our streets. The animal was caught in a canal on Mr. Edwin Barnes' farm a few miles in the country. A negro discovered the animal and gave it a whack with a shovel, which laid it out. It is thought that others must be in the neighborhood, for this young one would hardly stray off alone.

TAR RIVER BRIDGE

To the honorable the Legislature of North Carolina

We the undersigned being Citizens of Edgecomb County, and many of us have become subscribers to a petition addressed to your honorable body against the passage of the law authorising the building of a bridge across Tar River at Washington, that petition was assigned under an impression that the navigation of the River would be injured though we subscribed to all the objections contained therein, yet it was not under a belief they were founded in reason and Justice, but because it contained some objections, that we were of opinion were reasonable.

However since that time we have given the subject a more strict investigation and from the information we have been able to obtain, are now satisfied, that from the plan on which that bridge is to be built, that no difficulty will result to either the passage of fish or the navigation of the River, and altho' some of us are Merchants and the transportation of our produces and goods depend on the free navigation of Tar River and some of us are also owners of seins. The former petition to the contrary notwithstanding, we now are convinced that such a bridge would be matter of such public utility and believing that the objections in that petitions are mere fictions that if the bill when introduced should provide that two hundred and thirty yards of the river be left unoccupied by piers we forthwith solicit your honorable body to pass it into a Law authorising the building said bridge and as in duty bound will ever pray &c.

PETITION OF MOSES NUSOM

To the honorable the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina

The Petition of Moses Nusom of Johnston County humbly sheweth
That he actually enlisted himself into the Continental Army of this State as a Soldier during the late war & that He faithfully served in the months of January, February, March, April & May in the year 1782 & that He has never received any Satisfaction for the same except his land Warrant. That his Service clearly appears from Vouchers herewith presented and the reasons why He has not heretofore applied are first from ignorance how to get his business done being a poor illiterate Man & 2dly. that he has lost much time this Session by going over the country to seek after Major Redding Blount whilst He was coming up here whence it was out of his power to Wait a proper Certificate title the 11th. instant which he got back up here with, on Saturday last; but too late to have his Petition presented.

He therefore prays your honorable body to take his case into your wise consideration & grant him such relief as you in your wisdom may think proper.

To the Honorable, the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina
The humble petition of William Sanders Lancaster of Wayne County

Sheweth

That your petitioners Father William Lancaster, of Wayne county aforesaid, being one of the people called Quakers and making a matter of Conscience the keeping or holding any persons in slavery, hath according to the Custom of some among the Society of people called Quakers, Manumited a Certain Negroe woman named Patience & her Children Sam, Lelah, Rachel & Priss who are now going at large & under no controul of your petitioners father or any of his Family, as your petitioner humbly conceives, contrary to law. And as your petitioner hath been in his infancy at great labour and pains in raising the said Negroes, with flattering hopes that one day he might receive some advantage from the same by the Gift of his Father of some one or more of the said Negroes And as your said petitioner is not so tied down by his religions principles (he having renounced Quakerism) He humbly prays that the Title of the aforesaid Negroes, may be vested in him by such mode as your Honors, in your wisdom shall think proper to Adopt.

Help! And Where To Find It!

Social Security Records can be used in genealogical research to locate living relatives who have lost contact with their families, and who are deemed, in fact, lost relatives. You must obtain a form letter from the Social Security Administration (Office of Central Records Operations, Baltimore, MD, 21235.) They will attempt to forward letters which have a humanitarian purpose, although such letters having requests for business propositions are not acceptable. Letters to be forwarded must be placed in an unsealed envelope so they can be read by the Social Security Administration to ensure that they do not contain anything which could be embarrassing to the missing person. According to the rules, neither documents nor money can be forwarded.

8870 Formula - This formula can be used to determine the date of birth when you have a tombstone listing showing the date of death and also showing age in years, months, and days. If you have the death date of an ancestor shown as 6 May 1889, with the tombstone note that he was 71 years, 7 months, and 9 days old at the time of death, then you would calculate his birth date as follows:

Write the date as	18890506	(1889 May 6)
Subtract	- 710709	(71 yrs., 7 mos., 9 days)
The result	18179797
Then subtract	- 8870
Resulting in	18170927	(Date of Birth = 1817 Sep 27)

PETITION OF JAMES RHODES AND WIFE

To the Honourable the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina

The petition of James Rhodes and wife Heirs of the late Andrew Bass esqr. late of Wayne County decd. Humbly sheweth that some time in the year 1781 Andrew Bass offered to furnish the public with forty good Steers, that some times in the same year General Caswell wrote to Joseph Boon, at that time acting as public comissioner to purchase the Steers from said Bass at a generous price, and that the said Boon in consequence of the Generals letter did apply and purchase from said Bass thirty Six of said Steers at eight pounds each, as your petitioners are ready to make appear——your petitioners further represent that the said Andrew Bass died previous to the sitting of the board of Commissioner at Hillsborough, leaving the wife of your petitioner a minor, who is the only child and Heir of the said Bass by reason of which no application was made to that board for relief—your petitioners therefore humbly prays that you will Grant them such relief as to you in your wisdom shall seem Just & Equitable and your petitioners are in duty bound will pray &c.

Our June social dinner meeting was a great success! Many members came and enjoyed the delicious food and intersting conversation. Special thanks to Reese and Alberta Ferrell for having the event in their home; we really appreciated the hospitality!!

No meetings are planned for July and August; however, some of us may decide to get together the fourth Tuesday in August at the Tobacco Farm Life Museum and "talk shop." Details will be available in the August newsletter.

A "Conference for the Nation's Genealogists" will be held October 12 through October 15 in Richmond. Total conference fees are $85; the sessions, which cover a great variety of topics, sound interesting. Anyone who is interested in more information can contact Joan Howell.

German Speaking People West of the Catawba River in NC 1750-1800 and
Some Émigré's Participation in the Early Settlement of Southeast Missouri

By Lorena Shell Eaker

This is a 8½ x 11, 596 page hard bound migrational history of more than six hundred immigrant families who pioneered the settlement of the present day North Carolina Counties of Burke, Catawba, Cleveland, Gaston, Lincoln and Rutherford and the Cape Girardeau District of Southeast Missouri.

Many have origins documented in VA, MD, and PA, and a surprising number with origins in Alsace, The Netherlands, Switzerland and the Germanic Provinces of Europe for as many as five generations.

Emphasis is upon the immigrant's time of arrival, his spouse, his children, who they married and where they moved to. Those who arrived very early; or with nearly adult children; or who have caused a great deal of research agony and have suddenly come together may have as many as four generations scattered south and west to the Mississippi; as far north as Southwest VA, all of KY, Southern IN and IL; Southwest Missouri and Northeast Arkansas.

This is a culmination of forty-six years of research by the author; the generous contributions of many longtime associates, including those with expertise in European research to provide a one-of-a-kind guide on one group of immigrants as they pioneered in the settlement of America.

IS YOUR FAMILY TREE REALLY A TREE?

The higher you climb in your family tree, the more you'll realize that the tree's not really a tree. For as its branches divide again and again, more and more of them reconnect with one another, as well as with the branches of the family trees of everyone else on earth.

The further you look into your own genealogy, then, the more you're struck by the fact that we're all related to Dante and Mozart, to Churchill and Hitler—and to one another. To me, that's the ultimate lesson of genealogy: a lesson not in snobbery and self-importance, but in the fact that we're all members of one large family.

BLADEN COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA

Named for Martin Bladen, a member of the Board of Trade which supervised colonial affairs. Created: 1734 from New Hanover County. County Seat: Bladen Court House (no date) and Elizabethtown (1773-Present). Major Events: When the county was first created in 1734, Governor Gabriel Johnston, himself a Scot, promoted Scottish immigration into the county. For many years Bladen County had a distinctive Scottish flair. In 1781, the area around Elizabethtown became a Tory stronghold. Fearing that the Tories were going to pillage their homes, a small group of Patriots attacked the Tories, killing several and causing great confusion among the survivors. This engagement became known as the battle of Elizabethtown.

PITT COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA

On April 19, 1791, President George Washington stopped in Greenville while on a tour of the state. He remarked in his diary that he "dined at a trifling place called Greenville."

North Carolina Facts, John Clements, pg. 317

ROWAN COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA

In 1791, President George Washington, on his way to Salisbury, stopped at the home of Betsy Brandon, whose family had earlier left for town to see the president. Washington requested breakfast of the bewildered girl, noting that she had the honor or seeing him before the others.

North Carolina Facts, John Clements, pg. 315

HALIFAX COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA

Named for George Montague, second Earl of Halifax, president of the Board of Trade and Plantations, and often called the "Father of the Colonies" for his accomplishments in expanding American Commerce. Created: 1758 from Edgecombe County. Effective: Jan 1759. County Seat: Halifax. Major Events: The first court for that county met in Enfield, although the legislature authorized Halifax to be the county seat in 1758. Settlers had established themselves in the region as early as 1723. Halifax was laid out in 1757, and nearly every session of the General Assembly met here from 1776 to 1782. In 1776, the Provincial Congress met in Halifax to "take into consideration the usurpation and violences attempted and committed by the King and Parliament of Britain against America." Joseph Hewes, William Hooper, and John Penn were chosen as North Carolina's delegates to the Contintental Congress "to concur with the delegates from the other colonies in declaring independency, and forming foreign alliances, reserving to this Colony the sole and exclusive right of forming a Constitution and laws for the Colony. These so-called Halifax Resolves were the first official action by any colony for separation and independence from Great Britain. In 1893, John A. Chaloner founded Great Falls, which later became known as Roanoke Rapids. Local legend reports that following the Stuart restoration in 1675, the brothers of Oliver Cromwell, John and Edward, fled to America and changed their name to Crowell. They settled in Scotland Neck which became known as Crowell's Crossroads.

North Carolina Facts, John Clements, pg. 316

WAYNE COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA

Named for General "Mad Anthony" Wayne. Created: 1779 from the former county of Dobbs. County Seat: Waynesboro (1787-1850) and Goldsboro (1850-Present). In 1787, Waynesboro was established "where the courthouse now stands" on land belonging to Andrew Bass. After one futile effort in 1845, county residents voted to move the county seat to Goldsboro in 1847, which was incorporated that year. By 1850, Goldsboro had become the county seat. Residents of Waynesboro left the town when it lost its lofty place among the county's communities, and many former residents settled in Goldsboro. Several former residents even moved their houses to the new county seat, leaving little behind. Goldsboro owed its attractiveness to the Wilmington and Raleigh Railroad which had been completed in 1840, sparking the founding of the town a few years later.

SAM JONES ON MARRIAGE

It is putting money above manhood and womanhood. This is a besetting sin. When a father puts a premium of a hundred thousand dollars upon his daughter the young man often esteem the fortune above the girl, and wherever money is put above manhood you weaken the whole business and let down the foundation upon which society rests and happy married life must be based. The old goose don't know that the hardships he underwent made him what he is. Take the average girl. She will get up at 9 in the morning and call her servant. She will tie one end of her corset string to the bed post and get the negro hold of the other end, and see-saw until she gets herself as near as she can into the shape of a wasp. She goes down stairs; the breakfast is all over, and it disarranges everything for her to have her breakfast, and then it's not as good as the other breakfast, and she will raise cain with the house girl, for she has the disposition of a wasp as well as the shape of one. She has thrown herself out of shape until her vital organs are no more where God put them than if a Chinaman had built her. And by and by this girl, along with the money her father gives her, gets married, and she is to be a mother to the boys and girls of this country, and by the time she is thirty she is pale and haggard and worn out mentally and physically. Then she spends the balance of her time making her husband unhappy and her home unpleasant.

The girl marries if she is let alone the fellow she loves, if he is a bootblack or her fathers carriage driver. More boys are hunting rich girls than girls hunting rich boys.

A PIONEER MOTHER'S ADVICE

Here is verbatim a copy of the advice penned by a pioneer mid-western mother to her daughter:

Build a fire in the back yard and set kettle of rain water.
Set tubs so smoke won't blow in eyes if wind is pert.
Shave one hole cake lie sope in biling water.
Sort things, make three piles. One pile white, one pile cullord, one pile briches and rags.
Stire flour in cold water to smooth, then thikn with biling water.
Rub dirty spots on board, then bile, rub cullord but don't bile, just rench and starch.
Spread tee towels on grass.
Hang old rags on fence.
Pour rench water in flower bed.
Scrub porch with soapy water.
Turn tubs upside down.
Go put on a clean dress, smooth hair with side combs, brew cup of tea, set and rest and count your blessings.

Won't it seem good to have meetings resume after our summer vacation? On September 27, Henry Powell will be our guest speaker and demonstrate the use of computers for genealogy. He will present different programs; a large TV screen will be used for convenient viewing by the group. Plan now to come, and bring friends!

Our October 25 meeting will be a project session; November 22 will be a program. (In keeping with our format of alternating between "intake(programs)/output(projects)" activities at meetings.)

Come to the County Fair...and celebrate! We have been given a booth for display at the Wilson County Fair September 19-25. Setup will take place over the weekend and "final touches" will take place Monday between 8 and 11 a.m. We hope to display items (such as an old trunk with family items, family Bible, letters, photo album, etc.) which would contain information about the family. The caption would be something short and "snappy", like TREASURING YOUR PAST or... do you have some suggestions? If you do, or if you have any items which would be available for display, or if you would like to help set up the display, please contact Joan Howell. Help would be appreciated! We are not required to have someone on duty, so volunteers are not needed in that capacity. It is recommended that we not have any handouts there, as people tend to take and then toss.

Congratulations to Janice Sharpe for becoming a volunteer in the genealogy room at the library. She will be on duty from 1:00-5:00 each Thursday afternoon. The library staff is delighted to have coverage two afternoons a week, now. There's still room for more. How about you?

WORKSHOPS: Brochures with details and entry blanks are in the registration notebook in the genealogy room at the library. Feel free to make a copy for your use.

Tracing Your Roots at Asheville on Saturday, Sept. 17, 8:00-2:45 $25 (includes lunch if paid by Sept. 12).

Genealogy and Local History: The Basics of Research Part II at Elizabeth City on Saturday, Oct. 8, 9:30-5:00 $16 includes lunch.

EDGECOMBE COUNTY, N. C. ROAD PETITION

To the worshipfull Court of Edgcombe County

The petition of Sundry of the Inhabitants of sd. County Humbly Sheweth that

Whereas your worships, sometime past, (not being fully informed of the matter) did grant leave to Wm. Daniel Senr. for turning the public road round his said Daniel's plantation and to go into the old road opposit Joseph Daniel's plantation, the lower part thereof, which he the sd. Wm. Daniel has accordingly done; and your said petitioners being the Hands who are to work on said road; do inform and assert to your worships that the turning the sd. road in the manner and Order that the sd. Daniel has done, is productive of many inconveniencies as well to the public as your said petitioners, in sundry instances; Viz. the distance is at least one third more than the Old road; and the ground being very dry and firm the way the Old road ran, and where the new one runs very low and meadowey for the greater part of the road, so that the same must necessarily be Casway Otherwise travelers and Others, will be put to great inconveniencies, discommoded, and even Obstructed, in their passage; as they heretofore have frequently been. And the sd. Daniel has done very little more to the sd. road than Just to Open the same, and left all the rest of the work, which would be very considerable to be perform'd by the Company, your sd. petitioners; and the Advantage Arising to sd. Daniel by turning the sd. road very trifleing & inconsiderable. Therefore your said petitioners pray your worships to reconsider the matter, and direct that the Old road through the sd. Daniel's plantation be again Open'd and kept in repair by your sd. petitioners, as usual instead of the new one Open'd as aforesd. by sd. Daniel. And your petitioners, as in duty bound will pray &c. A PIONEER MOTHER'S ADVICE

Here is verbatim a copy of the advice penned by a pioneer mid-western mother to her daughter:

Build a fire in the back yard and set kettle of rain water.
Set tubs so smoke won't blow in eyes if wind is pert.
Shave one hole cake lie sope in biling water.
Sort things, make three piles. One pile white, one pile cullord, one pile briches and rags.
Stire flour in cold water to smooth, then thikn with biling water.
Rub dirty spots on board, then bile, rub cullord but don't bile, just rench and starch.
Spread tee towels on grass.
Hang old rags on fence.
Pour rench water in flower bed.
Scrub porch with soapy water.
Turn tubs upside down.
Go put on a clean dress, smooth hair with side combs, brew cup of tea, set and rest and count your blessings.

DID YOU KNOW? Did you know that present day Tennessee was part of North Carolina until 1790? Did you know that until 1792, present day Kentucky was part of Virginia? Did you know that 100% of professional genealogists surveyed agree that the obituary is inaccurate far more often than it is accurate? Did you know that among the Pennsylvania Germans it was customary, upon the death of a married woman, to bury all her marriage records with her, in order to show the Lord that this was a properly married woman? ...From "World Wide West Quest"

WORTH A TRY...Did you know you can make your own microfilm? Copy your genealogical records using an SLR camera and 35mm film and have it developed for use in a microfilm reader. Use Tri-X Pan (Eastman) film, 36 exposure, 400 ASA. When you have it developed, specify to return the roll uncut. ...From "Building an American Pedigree"

Copies of old newspapers have holes which occur only on last names; the critical link in your family tree-when you finally discover it-is named "Smith". ...From the NW Missouri Genealogical Society

Roman Reason..."Not to know what happened before we were born is to remain perpetually a child. For what is the worth of human life unless it is woven into the life of our ancestors." A quote from Marcus Tulius Cicero, Roman Statesman & Orator, born 7th December 106 BC and died 45 BC.

Be Prepared When Researching Viginia...
The climate for genealogists at the Virginia State Archives is decidedly murky, much to the dismay of those who travel long distances to delve into the Virginia holdings. If a county in which you are interested has deposited its loose papers with the Archives, you must arrive at the Archives with a letter of permission from the county's Circuit Court Clerk to search the loose papers of that county. A separate letter of permission must be obtained for each county whose loose papers you might wish to examine; not all counties grant this permission.

Unfortunately, there is no neat and tidy printed list of loose paper information about whether or not the loose paper holdings in the Virginia State Archives, including the information about whether or not the loose papers are open or closed for researchers.

If you intend to search in the Virginia State Archives during a planned trip, be forewarned and forearmed. You might contact the Circuit Court Clerk of each county in advance inquiring about the location and accessibility to researchers of loose papers.

The Virginia State Archives does some research in response to mail requests. There is a $10 fee per request. Write Virginia State Archives, 11th and Capitol Streets, Richmond, Va. 23219. ...From the "Bryan County Heritage Quarterly", Bryan County Heritage Assn., Inc. P. O. Box 153, Calera, OK 74730-0153.

AGE Search...A small branch of the Bureau of the census called AGE Search will, for $25, search any two census records, 1930-1990, for your name or for that of a direct ancestor for whom you can provide proof of death. The search is limited to the person for whom you are requesting information, but you may ask for other members of the family to be included for $2 for each additional person. You can also request a full line of information for an additional $6. For the basic fee, the Census Bureau, if succesful, will send you an official document giving you the person's name, age, place of birth, citizenship, and the name of relationship to the head of household. Form BC-600, which is necessary to request a search, may be obtained at your local Social Security office or by writing, Bureau of the Census, "Age Search", P. O. Box 1545, Jeffersonville, IN 47131. In the place on the form requesting the purpose of the search, family researchers should indicate "Genealogical Research." ...From the "Genealogical Society Quarterly"

Help! And Where To Find It!

I recently received e-mail from Dan Treadway of Iowa State University regarding Quaker Cox ancestors of both of us.

While I have read about the Julian and Gregorian calendars that affect the dates relating to our early ancestors, I had not considered the fact that they also apply to the American Encyclopedia of Quakers series of books. In reading and transcribing the dates from these books into my computer genealogy program, I transcribed them literally. That is to say, if the date was written as "1749,4,8" then I transcribed it as April 8, 1749. That is wrong. The correct date, using the Julian calendar that was in effect in 1749, is June 8, 1749.

What??? Applied to my own ancestors personally, this time the explanation given to me made sense. To quote Dan Treadway:

"The Julian calendar was introduced to the Roman empire by Julius Caesar in 46 B.C. It was based on a year of exactly 365.25 days. In fact, this is a little more than 11 minutes per year too long, leading to an error of one day every 128 years. This error was known in the 8th century, but no adjustment was made until a new calendar was introduced by Pope Gregory XIII in 1582. Gregory's innovation was to skip three leap days every 400 years; that is, a year divisible by 100 will not be a leap year unless it is divisible by 400. 1900 was not a leap year. 2000 will be. Gregory also arranged to make up for the error accumulated in the calendar by decreeing that the day following October 4, 1582 would be October 15. Under the old Julian calendar, the new year began on March 25, making March the first month. Early Quakers refused to honor pagan gods by using their names for months, always numbering the months instead.

This change would be confusing enough for genealogists and historians (to say nothing of those living at the time) but it was further complicated by the fact that the Pope's sway was no longer universal, so not every country adopted the change right away. Italy, France, Spain, Luxembourg, and Portugal, along with their colonies around the world, adopted the new calendar right away. Other Catholic states followed before 1590, including Belgium, Hungary, and parts of what are now Germany, the Netherlands, and Switzerland. Denmark and the remainders of the Netherlands and Germany made the switch in 1699 and 1700. Russia made the change in 1918 and Greece in 1923. Orthodox Christianity has retained the use of the Julian calendar for liturgical purposes and thus celebrates Christmas 12 days later than western Christians. Only during the 1800s was the difference exactly 12 days.

Britain and her colonies, including North Carolina, made the change in 1752. In that year the day following September 2 was September 14."

Once again, I had been given a reminder about knowing the history surrounding the dates and and the places and events in our ancestors' lives. Using the example listed above in the second paragraph, the fourth month of the years before 1752 in the American British ruled colonies would not be April but June since March was the first month of the year under the old Julian calendar.

Thorpe Family - Individuals researching the surnames of Thorpe, Thorp, Tharpe, Tharp may want to contact Tom Boltz, P. O. Box 216, Walkersville, Maryland 21793-0216 who has a database of more than 800 descendants of three Thorpe families who settled in the Colonies from the early to mid 1700s.

American Indians - Because of their special status as wards of the federal government, American Indian research is supported by many government records. The National Archives is strong on Indian records who kept their tribal affiliation. Of the many records available, tribal enrollment records from 1827 to present are also available. Many of these records list family history details such as Indian and "English" names, sex, degree of Indian blood, names of family or guardian, tribal and "band" affiliation, residence and occupation. For a listing of what is available, write to the Federal Archives and Records Center, P. O. Box 6216, Fort Worth, TX 76115. Some of their material is microfilmed and may still be available through interlibrary loan.

American Baptist Records - During the nineteenth century, back-country, circuit-riding preachers often kept a journal of the services, marriages, funerals, and baptisms they performed. If you are having trouble finding vital documents for an ancestor, some of these journals can be found today in the historical archives of that church. Write to:

Did you know? During the Middle Ages in Scotland because of infant immortality it was not uncommon to give two or even three brothers the same first name. It was also a common practice back then to change the surname with every change of residence in order to "please the laird."

WE THANK THEE FOR THE RATTLESNAKES

The Beaver family, up among the mountains, were a hard set. One day the young of the boys was bitten by a rattlesnake. Old folks so scared they sent for a minister, who knelt & prayed. "O, Lord we thank Thee for the rattlesnakes! We thank Thee that a rattlesnake bit Jim. We pray Thee to send one to bite John. We pray Thee to send another to bite Bill. And O Lord, send the biggest of Thy rattlesnakes to bite the old man, for nothing but rattlesnakes will bring the Beaver family to repentance. Amen."

PRICE OF ADMISSION. A relative had our family tree traced back to medieval England. On a trip to Britain, my wife and I visited Goodrich Castle, which bears our name. Near the castle's entrance was a little shed where a woman was taking tickets. I jokingly told her that my name was Goodrich and that I had come from the United States to claim the castle. "Oh, good!" she replied. "You owe us 900 years in back taxes. Contributed to Reader's Digest by Ralph Goodrich.

Thorn the interest of said Martha in the lands which descended to her from her fathers estate and allotted by metes & bounds adjoining J. G. Thorn and Woodard B. Thorne part of the James Wiggins tract sold by order of court by F. A. Woodard which said interest was one half of the Sixty acre tract conveyed by said F. A. Woodard to Thomas Wiggins by deed executed May 6, 1878.
11. That in consequence of the purchase price not having been fully paid by said Thomas Wiggins and J. G. Thorne free title could not be made and actual conveyance was not effected, pending which the said Martha A. Wiggins died leaving the petitioners her only heirs at law & Thomas Wiggins tenant by the courtesy.
111. That it will be for the material advantage of these infants that sale and contract be consummated, and perfected for the reason that the share of the said Martha is the division aforesaid is a long narrow strip between two other shares and will really not rent for a sufficiency to aid much in their support and the land contracted for instead thereof is a piece in which said Thomas has an undivided half and contains Sixty acres in one body.
The petitioners therefore pray this honorable Court to order a conveyance of the interest of the said petitioners in the lands aforesaid of said Martha and for such other and further relief as to the Court and as in duty bound &c. G. W. Blount, Atty for petitioners.
Thomas Wiggins and J. G. Thorne make oath that the statements set forth in the petition are true and in their opinion the transfer sought will be of eventual and material benefit to the petitioners. Sworn to & subscribed before me the 10th Nov. 1882. Signed by Thomas Wiggins and J. G. Thorn.

November 1994 Volume 3, No. 11

You won't want to miss our November 22 meeting (7:00 P.M. in the meeting room at Wilson County Public Library). It promises to be a most interesting one! John Bass from Spring Hope will speak to us about the dispute over where Annie Carter Lee (Gen. Robert E. Lee's daughter) should be buried. The story is not only fascinating, but more than a little complicated. (You may have read about this in the Raleigh News and Observer recently)

The following items received in the mail have been placed in the black notebook on top of the vertical file in the Genealogy Room at the library for reference: (Please make a copy if you want, and leave the original there.)

...Albemarle Genealogical Society brochure with membership application

...Announcement of publication of Currituck County, North Carolina Cemetery Records (Order form included).

Received too late for publication this month, but to be included in the next newsletter is a brief history of the Martin Thorn family of Wilson County, a distillation of information which member Barbara Broman will use in the publication of her family history book. Watch for this 3-page article!

The review of our most recent publication, Wilson County, North Carolina, Federal Census of 1870 received an excellent review in the November 1994 issue of The North Carolina Genealogical Society Journal, which concludes as follows: "Like the reviewer, the user of this volume will have great praise for the abstracting and editing work that went into this all-inclusive presentation of the 1870 Census for Wilson County; the work sets a high standard for other abstracters to study and emulate."

ESTATE OF WILLIAM FELLOW

To the Honourable the Judge of the Court of Equity for the County of Wayne.

The Bill of complaint of John McKinne of the County of Wayne and Olive his wife, Hillary Hooks of the same County and Polly his wife, John Crawford of the County of Johnston and Anna his wife, John Fellow of the County of Sampson and Susannah Blackman of the same County.

Humbly Complaining shew unto your Honour Your Orators and Oratrixes aforesaid, that William Fellow late of the County of Sampson departed this life many years since intestate, leaving the following person his widow, & next of Kin & distributees of his estate: To wit Your Orator John Fellow, son of the dec^{d}, Your Oratrixes Olive, Polly & Anna, (who are the wives of Your Orators Jn^{o} McKinne, John Crawford & Hillary Hooks) his daughters & Your Oratrix Susannah (who after the death of said William Fellow married one Joab Blackman who is since dead) his widow. And Your Orators & Oratrixes further complaining shew unto your Honour that Administration of all & Singular the goods and Chattels rights and Credits which were of the said William Fellow, was granted by the Court of Pleas & Quarter Sessions of Sampson County to one Josiah Blackman, who took upon himself the burden thereof, and after retaining the estate in hands for some time and satisfying the demands of all Creditors of his intestate undertook to Come to Settlement with Your Orators & Oratrixes, as distributees of said estate, and to divide among them the balance remaining in hands, after satisfying all other demands upon said Estate. And Your Orators & Oratrixes further shew unto your Honour, that when the said settlement and distribution were had, the said Josiah Blackman Administrator as aforesaid, retained in his hands the sum of Five Hundred dollars of the assets of his intestate under a pretence that the intestate had directed that sum to be applied to repay the expense of finishing a house which the intestate had commenced the building of sometime before his death, on a Tract of land which in the division of the real estate of the s^{d} Intestate was allotted to your Oratrix Olive. And Your Orators & Oratrixes further charge that no Such direction was ever given by the intestate, or if given was not given under such form and Soleminty as to render it valid. That the said sum or any part hath not been applied to the object for which it was professed by but was applied by him to his own use retained by the said Adm^{r} and that when he was permitted to retain it, Your Orators & Oratrixes were deceived both as to the law & the fact that your Oratrixes were there either under Coverture, or infants of tender years. And Your Orators & Oratrixes further shew unto your Honour that the said Josiah Blackman, having Completed the Administration of the estate of said William Fellow except as to the s^{d} Sum of Five Hundred dollars, died intestate & Administration upon his estate was granted by the County Court of Sampson to one William Blackman, who also dying, Administration of the estate of said Josiah not administered by said William was duly granted by the Court of Pleas & Quarter Sessions of Sampson County to John Sellars & William Ashford of the said County, who have taken upon themselves the burden there of, and possessed themselves of Estate of said Josiah to a large amount, more than sufficient to Satisfy the Claim of your Orators & Oratrixes. And Your Orators & Oratrixes further shew, that all Creditors of said W^m^ Fellow were satisfied before the death of said Josiah, and this sum of five Hundred Dollars held by him merely as a Trustee for the purpose before mentioned wherefore no person hath since Administered upon the estate of said W^m^ Fellow left unadministered by said Josiah. Your Orators & Oratrixes have frequently applied to said Sellars & Ashford & requested them to pay over the said sum of five Hundred dollars, with the Interest thereon but they have refused either to do so, or to pay it over to Your Orators Jn^o^ & Olive McKinne to whom the house aforesaid was allotted in the division of the lands as aforesaid, which House Your Orator John hath finished with his own moneys. In Tender Consideration of the premises & for as much as Your Orators are remideless without the aid of Your Honours, To the end therefore that the said John Sellars & W^m^ Ashford Administrators as aforesaid who Your Orators pray may be made defendants to this Bill of Complaint may upon their Corporal Oaths full true & perfect answer make to all & singular the premises, as fully as if the Same were repealed & they thereunto specially interrogated, and that Your Orators & Oratrixes may have such relief with premises as is Consistent with Equity and adapted to their Case May it please Your Honour to Grant Your Orators Your Writ of Subpoena directed to the s^d^ John Sellars & W^m^ Ashford Adm^r^ de bonis non of Josiah Blackman aforesaid, Commanding them to appear before Your Honour at the Court House in Waynesborough on the first Monday after the 4^th^ Monday of September next to answer &C.

DEPOSITIONS CONCERNING GARDNER'S MILL

ABSOLUM PROCTOR: Deposition of Absolum Proctor taken before us, John Mercer & David G. Baker Justices of the peace for the County of Edgecomb and State of N. Carolina at the house of Wm. J. Armstrong in the aforesaid County and State on the 10th day of August A. D. 1843, to be read in evidence in a suit now pending in the Court of pleas and quarter session in the aforesaid County of Edgecomb and State of N. Carolina wherein John Pitt is plantiff and Jonathan Baley is defendant. The witness being duly sworn according law, says:

I lived in the neighborhood of Gardner's Mill for six years—during that time the neighborhood was very sickly in the fall season—I lived on the plantation where Mr. Pitt now lives–And my family and Uncle William White's were sick every fall—also the Bailey's family were sickly—Solomon Sorey's—Andrew William's—William William's—Robert Lancaster's—David Gardner's were also sickly during the fall season—I believe that all swamp mill ponds are sickly where there is stagnant water. I should prefer not living where Mr. Bailey does if the mill were put up if I could avoid it. If the mill were put up, the sale of Mr. Bailey's land would be injured so far as I should be concerned. I do not know it might be with other's———

Cross Examined by Defendt.

Q. Who lives where you and your Uncle White lived——
A. Mr. Pitt the present plaintiff——
Q. Are there any families now living at the places which were rendered sickly by the mill——
A. Mr. Bailey and Mr. Williams live at two of the places——
Q. Did Mr. Lancaster's family enjoy health after he moved up from the pond——
A. I knew nothing of his family where he formerly lived——
Q. Is there anything peculiar about the place where Mr. Pitt wishes a mill that would render it more sickly than other mills——
A. Nothing that I know of——
Q. Is the stream generally springy and muddy——
A. It is as far as I have examined it——
Q. Was there much claring in the neighborhood of those families which were rendered sickly by the mill—
A. Uncle White & myself cleared a great deal; and I think it likely that the other families were clearing also
Q. Whilest you resided on the farm where Mr. Pitt now resided did you live nearer the Creek or mill pond-
A. I lived nearer the Creek——
Q. Did you not live near a mast——
A. I did within one hundred yards——
Q. Did not Mr. White live nearer a mast than the mill pond——
A. He did——.

JOSHUA WILLIAMS: Deposition of Joshua Williams taken before John Mercer and David G. Baker acting Justices for the County of Edgecomb and State of North Carolina at the residence of Wm. J. Armstrong on the 23rd day of August 1843 in pursuance of an order made at the May term of the Court of Pleas & Quarter sessions of the aforesaid County and State to be read in evidence in behalf of the Plantiff in a suit now pending in the aforesaid Court of Pleas & Quarter session wherein John Pitt is Plantiff and Jonathan Baily is defendant the said Williams being duly sworn according to law, says————

I am sixty seven years old—I lived about a mile from the mill and about half mile from the head of the pond—

I was raised there—My grand mother and my grand Father both lived near the mill pond—and the people living on the mill pond were no more sickly than those that lived off—Mr. Bailey bought his Land a long time after the mill was up—I never heard any complaint of the mill making the neighborhood sickly—

Cross Examined by Defendant—
For the last 35 years I have lived better than four miles from the mill seat—For the last 35 years I do not know anything about the health of the neighborhood. I frequently saw the neighbors but did not hear of any sickness though I did not inquire—particularly—I think if the neighborhood had been sickly I should have heard of it——Do you think stagnated water and mill ponds produce sickness—I think they are more sickly when the water is low than high—.

FAITHY WILLIAMS: Deposition of Faithy Williams taken before John Mercer and David G. Baker acting justices of the County of Edgecombe and State of North Carolina on the 23rd of August 1843 at the residence of Wm. J. Armstrong in the County and State aforesaid to be read in evidence in a suit now pending in the Court of pleas and Quarter sessions of the aforesaid County and State wherein John Pitt is plaintiff and Jonathan Bailey Defendent—To be read in behalf of the aforesaid plaintiff—The said Faithy Williams being duly sworn according to Law says—
I am seventy six years old—a mill was up at the place where Mr. Pitt wishes to erect one when I came from Virginia—I was about ten years old when I came—My Mother and family of seven children lived for several years—I cannot recollect how many in about two hundred yards of the end of the mill dam on the East side—and her family never was sick with the ague and fever in the time we lived there—My mother and family then moved on the other side and lived there as much as three years and were not sickly—We did not have the Ague and fever after moving over—The neighborhood is more sickly now than it used to be when the mill was up—Mr. Gardner lived at the place where Mr. Bailey now lives when the mill was up—My Mother and her family kept the mill one or two years—
Cross Examined by Defendant—
When my Mother lived on the plantation where Mr. Matthew Whitehead now lives two of her children had the Ague and fever—but she did not live at the place where Matthew Whitehead now lives—We did not move on the other side of the mill pond for health—We moved there to get a house to live in—I did not visit Mr. Bailey's House to know whether his family was sickly or not-if they had have been sickly I should have heard of it—. The neighborhood has been quite healthy for the last 20 years—but no more so since the mill went down than when she was up.———

Great idea for 1995! Get your calendar out and mark the meetings on the fourth Tuesday on each month (except July, August, and December).

MARTIN THORN, b. 1780 North Carolina, Edgecombe Co.(Nash/Wilson Co.)

In my effort to trace the lineage of my ancestors Taylor Arrington Thorn and Gulielma Mariah Bundy, I discovered they had been married in Nash County, North Carolina, in 1832. A family story tells that they left North Carolina in a break with the practice of slavery. Taylor left home at 18 years of age and before he reached legal status. It is probable he was disowned by his father, but there are no documents to prove or disprove that.

Nash Co., N.C., marriage records for the period of time surrounding Taylor's marriage included several young men named Thorn who cross-reference each other in standing bond for each other's marriages. The 1840 census of North Carolina lists several of these young men in the household of a Martin Thorn who was born 1780. Because Taylor left home before 1840 his name is not in that census, and the census of 1830 did not include family names except for the head of household. However, by taking the 1830 census and listing the male and female children by the age range, and using the 1840 census and earlier court documents to ascribe names to those children, we can reconstruct the list of children born to Martin Thorn and wife Mary "Polly" Coppage. Two children, Theophilus and Elizabeth were born circa 1805, Augustin was born 1813, a son (Taylor) 1814, John C. 1815, Berry 1820, Martin 1825, "Polly" (Mary) 1826, "Niney" (Peninah) 1827, Raymond 1828.

Marriage records of Nash County list six Thorn young men who stood bond for each other: John C. bonded for Taylor and Gulielma Maria Bundy, Augustin bonded for John C. and Nancy Mercer, Martin R. bonded for Augustin and Martha Ann Bundy, Berry bonded for Martin R. and Zina Lamm. After the deaths of Martin's wife and Berry, Augustin bonded for the marriage of Martin and Berry's widow, Renda (Marinda Sharp) Thorn.

The cross-referencing of marriage bonding among brothers can be a major justification for identifying Taylor as Martin's son if we have additional circumstantial documentation. There seem to be many such circumstantial occasions. We can consider the Colonial practice of naming sons in a particular sequence. A First son was named after the father's father, second son named after the mother's father, third son after his father's oldest brother, next son named after mother's brother, next son named after the father's next brother, and so on. This aspect can be examined as we trace the lineage of Martin Thorn (born 1780) backward in time.

The Thorn forename of Martin probably was handed down the line of descent from an earlier Martin who entered Virginia as early as 1674 under the "headright" procedure. First living in Surry County on the south bank of the James River, Martin Thorn's descendents spread south into Southampton Co. and then across the state border into Hertford County of North Carolina. From Hertford County the family spread southwest into Edgecombe County.

In 1757 a Martin Thorn used Virginia money to pay for 225 acres in North Carolina in Edgecombe County. In 1761 he received a Land Grant from Lord Granville for 495 additional acres adjoining his property.

In 1763 when Martin Thorn bought 375 more acres in Edgecombe Co., the deed transfer was witnessed by Thomas Theophilus Thorn. In 1769 Martin's son John Thorn bought 225 acres adjoining his father's land. Further land transactions were made until in 1777 Edgecomb County was partitioned off to create Nash County.

In 1779 and 1784, tax lists of Hertford County included John, Nicholas, Thomas, Hardy and William Thorn. By 1779, however, Martin, William, Hardy and John Thorn all owned land in Edgecombe County. Nicholas Thorn began to buy Edgecombe County land in 1782.

We should remember that throughout the late 1700's the Colonies were in revolt against British rule, the new government of the United States of America was in evolution, and expansion into the Northwest Territory began. Provincial archives of land ownership lay in areas along the eastern coast where battles were played out. Many sites of legal archives were destroyed during the Revolution or later during the war between the States. Hertford County records were lost twice during battles.

A major hurdle is met in dealing with archival documents that list the name "Martin Thorn." Because of geographical evolution, records appeared in the counties Halifax, Edgecombe, Nash and Wilson as territories were partitioned and new counties were formed. The area was known as Halifax territory beginning 1732 and was divided in 1759 to create the county of Edgecombe. In 1777 Edgecombe County was partitioned to create Nash County from it's western half. Wilson County was formed in 1855 from parts of Nash, Edgecombe, Wayne and Johnston Counties.

Martin Thorn, born 1780 and listed in Wilson County's 1860 census, is distinct from Martin Thorn, born 1784 and also listed in Wilson County's census of 1860. In 1850 the census of Nash County listed the Martin Thorn born 1780 and the census of Edgecombe County listed the Martin Thorn born 1784. In unravelling the lines of ancestry from these two Martin Thorns we find some significant stipulations in wills and deed transfers. There was a Martin Thorn Jr. who was grandson of Martin Thorn Sr., and there was a Martin Thorn whose grandfather was John Thorn of Hertford County.

A 1785 Edgecombe Co. deed transfer identifies Nicholas as the son of John Thorn "late of Hertford County." The 1785 deed was transferred to Nicholas by Martin Thorn from his land on Little Swamp, and it had been cleared for a mill. When Nicholas died in 1788 his will stipulated that Martin, Thomas and Elizabeth were the children of Nicholas Thorn. A 1976 Wilson Daily Times article gave historical treatment to grist mills in the area. It lists White's Mill on Little Swamp as having belonged originally to the orphans Thomas and Martin Thorn. The article reported the place was operated as Thorne's Mill by Martin Thorne (1784-1875). Martin Thorn (b. 1784) married a widow, Elizabeth (Dew) Pender, who had three sons. Martin and Elizabeth then had four children, Nancy, William, James Redmon and Elizabeth. We know that the Martin Thorn b. 1780 raised his family in Oldfields Twp. on the Bloomery Swamp which lay in Nash County before 1855.. A deed transfer was made in 1828 from Martin R. Thorn to his daughter, Elizabeth Owen, for land on Bloomery Swamp. An 1803 deed transfer stipulates that Martin Jr. was the grandson of Martin Sr. The 1803 transfer also stipulated that "Edey" (or "Eliz.a") Thorn was daughter of Martin Thorn, Sr. An 1806 court action

> (Edgecombe Co. Deed book 12-206: Wm. Thorn, Beady Pope, > Winifred Robertson, Theophilus Thorn, Martin Thorn, Taylor Thorn, > Mary Pope, and Elizabeth Thorn sold a tract of land jointly, deed > also signed by Hardy Pope, Wiley Robertson and Dempsey Pope.
> Jan. 28, 1806)

listed heirs who jointly sold land, and the date is significant when we review the death dates of Martin's son John (prior to 1785) and grandson Nicholas (1788). An effort to reconcile the mass of data leads me to the following reconstruction:

Martin (Thomas)
Taylor	Elizabeth	John	Theophilus	"Beady"	Mary	Winifred	William
Nicholas d.1788			Martin 1780				Taylor
m. RachelBrown			m. Mary Coppage				m. Peg Edwards
Eliza. Thomas Martin 1784			Theophilus, Eliza., Augustin, Taylor, John, Berry, Mary, Martin, Peninah, Raymond				Redmund, John Wm.B., Joseph, Theophilus T., Martha, Mary, Temperance

The names of Taylor and John are placed as oldest children to reflect the Colonial way of naming children which Martin Thorn (b. 1780) may have followed. Martin's wife Mary "Polly" Coppage was stipulated in a court document as daughter of Augustin Coppage of Northampton Co., Va. Augustin Coppage's son Griffin died in Virginia unmarried and without issue. Taylor and Mariah Thorn named their three sons David Martin, Martin V. and Griffa Taylor.

William Thorn is described in family bible records as having come to North Carolina from Virginia at the age of 21. Land records show that in 1786 William Thorn "of Hertford Co." bought land on Otter Creek in southeastern Edgecombe Co. The land lay adjacent to land belonging to James Taylor. The Taylor family had extensive landholdings in Edgecombe County. William Thorn married Mary Taylor and in 1788 sold his land to Samuel Taylor. William and Mary relocated to Nash County on Compass Creek where they raised their family. William and Mary's son Taylor (b. 1782) married Margaret Edwards, daughter of Solomon Edwards who also came from Virginia and settled in early Edgecombe or northeastern Nash County around Compass Creek.

Another prolific and prosperous family in the Compass Creek area was the Arringtons. Taylor Arrington Thorn may have been named after an uncle, Taylor Thorn, and a female relative whose maiden name was Arrington. Mariah Bundy's uncle Henry Vick married Elizabeth Arrington. (Mariah's parents, David and Demaris (Horn) Bundy, and grandparents, Thomas and Cielia (Vick) Horne, were Quakers.)

The 1840 Nash County census lists Augustin, Berry, Martin, Raymond, Mary and Peninah with Martin and Polly Thorn. Theophilus' name is gone, Elizabeth is married, John died in 1835 and Taylor moved away after his marriage in 1832. The 1850 Nash Co. census lists the names Augustin, Berry, Martin and Raymond with Martin Thorn. John's son, named Eli, was raised by Nancy who remarried to Crawford Baker. Late in 1850 Berry died. Berry's wife and two daughters were taken in by Berry's brother Martin. By the 1860 census, Martin's second wife had died and he was raising all five children. In 1860 Mary (Coppage) Thorn was living alone with daughters Polly and Niney; and Augustin and Raymond lived nearby with their families. During the Civil War, Martin and Polly's son, Martin, died of illness while in service and his and Berry's children were scattered among relatives. By the 1870 census Augustin and Martha were gone from Wilson County and Raymond Thorn was the only son of Martin and Polly Thorn living in the same area, although several grandchildren remained living in the area. Raymond's descendent, Bill Thorn, researched for a family history that he called "Pickings of a Picker," in which he listed Raymond's grandfather as Nicholas.

It is my conclusion that the descendents of Raymond C. Thorn and James Redmon Thorn spring from these two separate Martin Thorns. The age range between Raymond and his oldest brother, Theophilus, was more than twenty years, which illustrates the possibility that the cousins Nicholas and Martin (1780) could be a generation apart in ages.

The Martin Thorn who entered North Carolina in the 1750s probably named his sons after his father and brothers. There was certainly an earlier Nicholas Thorn than the one who died in 1788. The brothers probably cross-named their sons after uncles. We are just fortunate to have available to us all the data that survived wars and the elements. And it is a great story. This has been just a small chapter.

Land Measurement Early surveyors measured land in chains and rods, but today this method sounds confusing to us. The basis of measurement was the Gunther chain invented by Edmund Gunther in 1620. The Gunther chain was 66 feet in length and consisted of a hundred links of 7 92/100ths inches each. It was made of #6 or #wire. Today's sytem of measurement is linked to the chain measurements of the past. Today the rod is 16 1/2 feet or one-fourth of a chain. The mile is 80 chains. The acre is 10 chains or 43,560 feet. The rod was also known as a pole. Streets were laid out one chain wide. The old linear measure called the surveyor's measure was: 7 92/100" makes 1 link; 25 links make one pole; 100 links, or 4 poles, make 1 chain; 10 chains make 1 furlong; 8 furlongs or 80 chains make 1 mile.

Old Fields Township? Did the early Indians of Wilson County, North Carolina provide a name that is still in use today in one of the townships? Most of the early tribes carried on a primitive form of agriculture. They made clearings by cutting into trees to kill them and by setting fires in the forest. Among the dead and blackened trunks they planted pumpkins, squash, beans, and corn. A tribe abandoned its clearing and made a new one when the yields fell, or when the accumulated filth of the village became too deep to endure. The Indian "old fields" attracted incoming settlers as convenient places to begin settlement, and the newcomers eagerly adopted the cultivation of native crops, above all corn. Without the clearings and the crops that the Indians provided, settlers would have had much greater difficulty than they did in getting a new start in the New World.

For Your Information Lambs in Pennsylvania also claim a Jacob Lamb. At times, I think every Lamb family in the world named a son Jacob. From Encyclopedia of American Quaker Genealogy, Volume II, (Pennsylvania) Hinshaw and Marshall, Compilers, page 237, Burlington Monthly Meeting:

1732, 8, 2	Jacob reported married to Sarah Haines
1744,10, 3	Joseph & wife received on request
1750, 9, 5	Jacob reported married to Lydia Hains
1759, 7, 2	Jacob & Lydia granted certificate Haddonfield MM
1764,12, 3	Ann Leeds, daughter Jacob Lamb, received on certificate Evesham MM
1765, 5, 6	Anna reported married to Thomas Newbold
1769, 1, 2	Elizabeth reported married to Joseph Pope

There are no birth dates for Lambs recorded in Burlington Monthly Meeting. This book has 1126 pages and covers the monthly meetings for Salem Monthly Meeting, New Jersey; Burlington Monthly Meeting, New Jersey; Philadelphia Monthly Meeting, Pennsylvania; and Falls Monthly Meeting, Pennsylvania.

A Cox Connection? Some family historians have linked Benjamin Franklin's father to the Cox family who lived in Wayne County in the 1700s. It appears that Benjamin Franklin's father married Mary Cox first and had about 6 children. Mary Cox died and his father married again. This second marriage produced Benjamin Franklin. Benjamin Franklin had half brothers and sisters who were Cox descendants. 1732, December 19: Poor Richard's Almanack was first published by Benjamin Franklin at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. In continuous publication for 25 years, Franklin's Almanack sold on average more than 10,000 copies yearly and thus was one of the most popular writings of colonial America. The celebrated kite experiment in 1752 was conducted near what is now the corner of Fourth and Vine Streets in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

A Paper Trail

An article on backing up data on computers from a Seattle, Washington newspaper E-zine Computer Wave (Oct., 94 Vol. 1/3) brings grave warnings to those of us who use computers to store our family history.

The article concludes that "paper copies" are still essential for long term record keeping in this computerized age. Even in the future, people will have eyes and magnifying glasses to read information that is printed on paper. Storing information digitally on computers has many advantages, but permanence is not one of them. No organization has learned that hard lesson better than the United States government which has found valuable information no longer retrievable.

> The entire 1960 national census is gone because the computers used to read and write the data were recycled for scrap long ago.

Historians can only refer to summaries previously generated; new analysis of the data is impossible, although census officials say there are "rumors" of one machine still operating in Japan that might be able to read these UNIVAC I tapes.

Missing census data is just the tip of the iceberg says Ron Dippold, an engineer who has worked for several government agencies. "A lot of government data is stored on old, weird, IBM tape formats. Either the machines can't read the tapes, or no one knows how to modify the software (that interprets the data.)"

People researching their family histories now are providing a link to the past and can record the missing federal data on families in the 1960 era for future genealogical researchers. Just make sure you leave behind a paper copy.

A Yankee's Eye View

An Angel of Marye's Heights Statue (sometimes called Angel of Mercy Statue) is located in Fredericksburg, Virginia at the site of the Battle of Fredericksburg (Fredericksburg Battlefield Visitor Center). This impressive statue is situated in front of what is called the Stone Wall which is a wall behind which the Confederate troops were located and effectively decimated the Union troops as they came up toward the wall. One book describes the scene: "The rest of the Federal pickets hugged the cold earth, taking futile, dangerous potshots at the stone wall and listening to the pleas of their own wounded. That pitiful chorus carried all the louder into the Confederate lines affecting one South Carolina sergeant in particular. Burdening himself with all the canteens he could manage, Richard Kirkland bounded over the stone wall and started to the suffering Yankees. Syke's Division of Regulars watched from within easy rifle range, but the lone Southern soldier reached the first wounded man unhurt. Once his mission became clear, picket fire dropped off entirely, and Kirkland ranged along the front in perfect safety dispensing water and sympathy."

(Name of book and author unknown, but a note was added that part of the stone wall still exists. There is a photograph of Richard Kirkland in the Carolinian Collection at the University of South Carolina.)

SHAKING YOUR FAMILY TREE

All military records are important to genealogical research. Not only do they provide information about the service of relatives and ancestors, but they often contain rich biographical data that will enhance your family history.

Records of discharged or deceased officers who were separated after July 1, 1917, and enlisted personnel who were separated after November 1, 1912, are housed at the National Personnel Records Center, 9700 Page Blvd., St. Louis, Mo. 63132. A fire at this repository in 1973 destroyed many of the records. However, much work has since been done using other sources to reconstruct the information that was lost.

To obtain copies of military records, you must first request copies of the proper form. If the veteran is still living, you will need his or her permission to obtain these files. If the veteran is deceased, you will need to include documentation of death, such as a copy of the death certificate or an obituary.

For pre-1912 military records (pre-1917 for officers), write Todd Butler, General Reference Branch, National Archives and Records Service, Washington, D. C. 20408, and request several copies of NATF FORM 80. When the forms arrive, fill them out as completely as possible. Particularly if your ancestor had a common surname, you will need to provide detailed information to identify him or her.

Be sure to ask for searches in both military and pension files. These are two different searches. Cost is about $10 a search–if records are found.

Pension records are usually the most valuable, genealogically speaking. They consist of applications for assistance by veterans, or by their families when the veteran is elderly, injured, sick, incapacitated or dead. They often provide birth date and place, marriage and maiden name of wife, death date and place, and information about children, parents and other relatives. sometimes these records provide detailed biographical, medical and historical information.

WILSON COUNTY GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY
NEWSLETTERS 1994

This index contains about 2950 names, alphabetically arranged. The numbers to the right of each name indicate Volume/No./Page on which that name will be found at least once.

If the same name appears more than once on a given page, it will be listed in the index only once. Search the page for additional appearances of the same name.

The index does not contain names contained in newsletter articles pertaining to current society business (such as membership roster, new members, etc.) Names of people submitting queries are also not included. Every effort has been made to include just those names of genealogical/historical significance.

Generally, names listed in the index will be as they appear on the page: however, some assumptions were made in obvious cases (such as "Sallie, wife of Jesse Smith" was indexed as Sallie Smith).

Back issues of the Wilson County Genealogical Society Newsletters can be purchased by sending $2.50 for each issue with your request to:

Wilson County Genealogical Society
PO Box 802
Wilson NC 27894--802

Be sure to specify Volume and No. of the issue requested.
